JOB FAIR TO BE HELD IN O'FALLON, IL

O'FALLON-SHILOH—

The O'Fallon-Shiloh Chamber of Commerce and the St. Clair County Intergovernmental Grants Department will jointly host a job fair on Tuesday, June 8th, 9-11 a.m. at the O'Fallon VFW Post 805 located at 223 W. First Street, O'Fallon.

There will be 20+ chamber member employers at the fair with the main focus being on the hospitality industry (restaurants and hotels). Other industries represented will be cleaning and fitness. The City of O'Fallon will be represented with jobs for seasonal parks employees.

This fair is open to the general public; there is no cost to attend. Are you a high school or college student? We've got jobs for you too! There are over 100+ jobs being represented at this job fair – if you want a job, there are jobs to be had! Some employers will even be doing on the spot hiring; acceptable documents to complete the I9 form are photo ID and social security card.

More details and a list of employers can be found on the Chamber's website later next week at OFallonChamber.com. Attendance prizes drawn every 20 minutes – you must be present to win.

Current CDC mask guidelines apply.
