

New Sunday Morning Worship Time FAQ's

Have you heard Sunday mornings will look different at Faith? Starting Sunday, June 12th, we will begin worshipping at 9:00am and 10:30am. Maybe these are some of your questions:

- What will these new services look like?
 - They will be identical and traditional. Modeled off the current 9:30am worship.
- How often will we have Holy Communion?
 - We will have Holy Communion at both services every Sunday except the fourth Sunday of the month.
- I volunteer, which service will I serve at now?
 - That will be up to you! We still need all hands on deck and would like for you to share with Jane Wieland which service you intend to make your home.
- What will happen to the Praise Band?
 - They will play as an ensemble in the new services throughout the summer. But more importantly, they will play at our new Contemporary Worship that we are launching later this Fall.
- What service will the bell and vocal choirs sing at?
 - They will rotate each week between the two services, as they do now between the 8:00am and 9:30am worships.
- What time will Children's Sunday School be at?
 - We will begin Children's Sunday School in August and it will run concurrently with the 9:00am worship.
- What time will Summer Sunday School for children be at?
 - Summer Sunday School for PreK-5th grade will be during the 9:00am worship and will begin June 12th.
- What is this "Children's Church" I keep hearing about?
 - This will be available during the 10:30am worship starting in August. Children (PreK-3rd grade) will attend worship until the Children's sermon and then if they wish, will be dismissed for worship education and activities just for kiddos!

- What about Adult Education opportunities?
 - The majority of our adult classes will be held during the 9:00am hour, but we will also strive to provide classes at 8am and 10:30am.

- What is this “Sermon Deep Dive” I keep hearing about?
 - This is a Bible Study that will begin in August at 11:30-12:15. This will be led by the pastor and will involve a deeper look at the sermon scripture lessons. Folks who want to know more about the readings and how to make use of them in their lives will enjoy this class.

- What about coffee and donuts?
 - Coffee and donut fellowship will be available from 8:30-11:30am every Sunday.

- Which service should I attend?
 - We think the 9:00am will be the more “full” service. So, if you are ambivalent about which to attend, we encourage you to try the 10:30am!
